

July 2024

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1	2	3	4	5 New Moon - enjoy the darkness tonight. ●	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13 ●
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21 Full Buck Moon when the male deer grow their new antlers for the season. ○	22 Mercury can be seen at the western horizon just after sunset.	23	24	25	26	27 ●
28 Delta Aquarids Meteor Shower, you might be able to see a few shooting stars across the sky.	29 Delta Aquarids Meteor Shower, you might be able to see a few shooting stars across the sky.	30	31

August 2024

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1	2	3
4 New Moon, appreciate what is percolating in the darkness. 	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12 Perseids Meteor Shower, best shower to watch. Best view will be after midnight. 	13 Perseids Meteor Shower, best shower to watch. Best view will be after midnight.	14	15	16	17
18	19 Full Sturgeon Moon or Green Corn Moon, Also a Blue Moon and the 3rd full moon of four this season. 	20	21	22	23	24
25	26 	27	28	29	30	31

September 2024

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2 	3 New Moon, appreciate the dark sky and the night sounds.	4	5 Mercury can be seen low in the eastern sky just before sunrise.	6	7
8 Saturn will be visible all night long. You will be able to see the rings of Saturn and a few of its moons with a telescope.	9	10	11 	12	13	14
15	16	17 	18 Full Corn Moon or Harvest Moon, and Supermoon which means the moon might look slightly larger and brighter than usual.	19	20 Neptune will appear as a tiny blue dot if seen with a very powerful telescope.	21
22 September Equinox indicates equal light and dark transitioning into Fall for the Northern Hemisphere and Spring for the Southern Hemisphere.	23	24 	25	26	27	28
29	30					